

If I were a poet, I would write about Klaus' kindness.

If I were a singer, I would praise his honor and humility.

As a friend, I thank him for wonderful memories and his generosity in times spent together.

Kristi Becker